

Multiplying Radicals

1. Determine if the radicals can be multiplied together. The radicals must have the same index.
 $-4\sqrt{15} \cdot -\sqrt{3}$

2. Multiply the coefficients.

3. Multiply the radicands.

4. Simplify your answer.

Multiplying Radicals

1. Determine if the radicals can be multiplied together. The radicals must have the same index.
 $-4\sqrt{15} \cdot -\sqrt{3}$

2. Multiply the coefficients.

3. Multiply the radicands.

4. Simplify your answer.